UPCOMING ENTERTAINMENT LINES

The PostLines/511 services listed in this section of the directory are just the beginning. We'll be adding new services for you in the future. Use the coupon on page 29 to tell us what you'd like The Palm Beach Post to add. Here's several lines we're working on now:

LETTERS TO THE ENTERTAINMENT EDITOR

LINE — Record your own movie review. Express your opinion about a concert. Instead of sitting down and writing a letter and paying the 29-cent postage, call PostLines/511 and record your comments. A 511 editor will listen to all the recorded "letters" and select the most interesting to be included on a special line that all PostLines/511 callers can listen to.

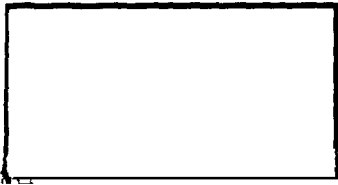

EARLY-BIRD LINE — Would you like to know the daily early-bird specials at area restaurants? Would you like us to fax you restaurant menus?

MUSIC — Would you like to hear cuts from just-released CDs?

REVIEWS — What types of performance reviews would you like presented on PostLines/511? Theater reviews? Concert reviews?

Call 511 for baseball updates

Starting today the results of spring baseball games are available shortly after completion on PostLines/511, a new Palm Beach Post service.

You must have a touch-tone phone. Rotary phones will not work.

Simply push 5-1-1 and a specific four-digit code, if you are calling from Tequesta south through Boynton Beach and west through Wellington/Royal Palm Beach. The cost is 35 cents for up to a five-minute call.

Elsewhere, call (900) 990-9511 and enter the same four-digit codes. The cost is 35 cents a minute.

Charges will appear on your monthly phone bill. You must be 18 or older.

To ensure your selection is received accurately, wait until asked for a four-digit code and press the key pad slowly and firmly.

A complete directory of codes is on page 7C. Check the schedules in today's Palm Beach Post and allow about four hours from each game's start before you call.

Beginning Sunday Palm Beach Post readers will be able to receive news updates, stock quotes, restaurant and book reviews, crossword puzzles, tax tips and forms, comic strips and hundreds of other features 24 hours a day via PostLines/511.

If your home or office blocks 900, 976 or 411 calls, you will be unable to call PostLines/511. To lift the block only on 511, call 780-2355 (residence) or 780-2800 (business).

For PostLines/511 information, call (407) 820-2020 from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday-Friday.

TO OUR READERS

Starting Sunday, Palm Beach Post readers can use touch-tone phones 24 hours a day to get news updates and hundreds of other features.

By pushing just three digits — 5-1-1 — and entering codes provided in the paper, callers from Boynton Beach to the Martin County line and west to Wellington/Royal Palm Beach can make a call that lasts up to five minutes for 35 cents.

Readers elsewhere can get the same information by dialing a 900 number, which will cost 35 cents per minute.

The Florida Public Service Commission granted The Post a two-year test period for the unique experiment. It is the first ever non-telephone company commercial use of a three-digit code.

Postlines/511 will offer a supermarket of more than 500 lines which in turn will offer thousands of pieces of information. Services will range from continuously updated news, weather, sports and stock quotes to fax delivery of automobile reviews, crossword puzzles, comic strips and tax forms.

Look for all the information you need to use Postlines/511 in Sunday's Post.

24-HOUR NEWS

PostLines/511 gives answers when you're looking for them

Palm Beach Post readers can now receive news updates, stock quotes, restaurant and book reviews, crossword puzzles, tax tips and forms, comic strips and hundreds of other features 24 hours a day through PostLines/511.

By dialing three digits — 5-1-1 — and entering codes keyed to specific features, callers from Boynton Beach to Tequesta and west to Wellington/Royal Palm Beach can make a call that lasts up to five minutes and costs 35 cents.

Elsewhere, callers can dial (900) 990-9511, followed by the specific codes. On this line, each call is 35 cents per minute. Callers must be 18 or older.

For a complete guide to all the PostLines/511 numbers, look for the booklet inserted into today's Home & Garden section.

The Post is the first non-telephone company in the country to offer information by phone and fax via a three-digit number. Charges will appear on callers' monthly phone bills.

Postlines/511 features include:

- More than 10,000 stock market issues updated every 15-20 minutes from the New York, American and Nasdaq exchanges. Mutual and money fund prices are available after the markets close. Canadian stocks will be offered soon.

- Associated Press reports at the top of each hour that take you to the battlefield or the scene of breaking news where you can hear events as they occur.
